

Total No. of Questions : 8]

[Total No. of Printed Pages : 2

Roll No

MI-3005-CBGS

B.E. III Semester

Examination, June 2020

Choice Based Grading System (CBGS)

Geology - I

Time : Three Hours

Maximum Marks : 70

Note : i) Attempt any five questions.

ii) All questions carry equal marks.

iii) Draw neat sketches, wherever required.

iv) Assume suitable data if missing/required.

1. a) Describe the importance of Geology for mining engineers. 7
b) Explain, giving suitable examples 7
 - i) Polymorphism
 - ii) Isomorphism
2. Give a detailed account of various physical properties used in megascopic identification of minerals. 14
3. Describe various types of faults seen in the rocks. Add a note on their significance in mining. 14
4. Describe the influences of folds in mining and tunneling. 14

MI-3005-CBGS

PTO

[2]

5. List various geophysical methods used for prospecting of mineral deposits. Explain any one of them in detail. 14
6. What are sedimentary rocks. Describe various structures of the sedimentary rocks. Write petrography of 14
 - i) Sand stone
 - ii) Conglomerate and breccia
7. Describe any one method of reserve estimation, giving its merits and demerits. 14
8. Write petrographical notes on 14
 - i) Pegmatite
 - ii) Basalt
 - iii) Schist
 - iv) Gneiss

MI-3005-CBGS